Under current law, the Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA) coordinates the provision of military honors funerals to deceased veterans by members of local veterans organizations and the national guard. As part of that program, DVA reimburses the local veterans organization an amount not to exceed $50 for its costs in providing the military honors funeral.

This bill repeals the reimbursement of the costs of the military honors funeral.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
